Serving you. No matter the season.

Whatever your employment needs may be, the Nebraska Department of Labor is here to serve you. From training to job referrals, our staff will work to connect you with the resources and opportunities you need to live the “Good Life” of Nebraska.

Visit your local job center to see how we can help you.
Who are Migrant and Seasonal Farmworkers?

SEASONAL FARMWORKER  A person who, during the past 12 months:
- Worked a combined total of 25 days or more parts of days performing farmwork
- Earned at least half of his or her income from farmwork
- And was not employed in farmwork year round by the same employer.

MIGRANT FARMWORKER  A seasonal farmworker who had to travel to do the farmwork and was unable to return to his or her permanent residence within the same day.

MIGRANT FOOD PROCESSING WORKER  A person who, during the past 12 months:
- Worked a combined total of 25 days or parts of days performing food processing work
- Earned at least half of his or her income from processing work
- And was not employed in food processing year round by the same employer, provided that the processing work required travel such that the worker was unable to return to his or her permanent residence in the same day.

Your Advocate in the Workforce

The Monitor Advocate helps to ensure that services provided to migrant seasonal farmworkers are “qualitatively equivalent and quantitatively proportionate” to the services provided to other job seekers. Migrant seasonal farmworkers should receive all workforce development services, benefits, and protections on an equitable and non-discriminatory basis.

— State Monitor Advocate Mission Statement

The Nebraska Department of Labor is dedicated to ensuring the protection of migrant seasonal farmworkers through Federal and State employment laws, addressing issues such as:
- Housing
- Pay
- Transportation
- Working Conditions
- Complaints

For additional information, contact the nearest Nebraska Department of Labor job center using the listing on the back of this brochure.